Say It, I'll Point

Say the word with the star. Your grown-up points to the one they hear.

moo

moose

pea

piece

eye

ice

nose

no

peach

If you hear "pea" for "peach": point to the pea and smile. "Oh, pea! Can you say peach?" Respond to what you hear, then say the word for them. Do not say "No, that's wrong." Hearing the mix-up teaches the ending sound.
