Say It, I'll Point

Say the word with the star. Your grown-up points to the one they hear.

bike

bone

bow

boat

boo

boot

moon

moo

toe

toad

If you hear "bow" for "boat": point to the bow and smile. "Oh, bow! Can you say boat?" Respond to what you hear, then say the word for them. Do not say "No, that's wrong." Hearing the mix-up teaches the ending sound.
